Narberth Has Big Part in Main Line Orchestra

Three Local Soloists in Final Concert Tomorrow

For the last concert of the season by the Main Line Orchestra, to be given tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 in the Ardmore Theatre, Adolph Vogel, conductor, has programmed an innovative list of including as soloist an old side artist, he has placed on the program four soloists, all selected from the Orchestra itself. Of these four, three are Narberthites.

Frederick C. Patten will play a trumpet solo, "Song to the Evening Star," Wagner; Master Fred Fletcher Patten will play a violin solo, "Sonata in D minor," Beethoven; and E. C. Batchelor will play a clarinet solo, "A Spanish Serenade," by Friml. The fourth soloist will be G. B. Tompkins, who will play a clarinet solo. All will play with orchestra accompaniment.

Thus will close a season for the Orchestra which has been marked by almost unprecedented success. With purely amateur talent and but one night each week for rehearsal, the Orchestra will have played this season four regular concerts in the Ardmore Theatre, and a fifth at the dedication of the new high school building in Ardmore, each presenting an entirely different program and each containing a movement from a symphony or equally difficult work. Probably no other amateur orchestra in the country, certainly in this section, holds an equal record.

And Narberth has contributed to this success, for eight residents of Our Town are now enrolled as regular members of the Main Line Orchestra, most of whom have played with the organization since its beginning two years ago. This list includes A. J. Loos, of Haverford Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. L. Wayne Arny, of Merion Avenue; R. C. Kennedy, Sabine Avenue; E. C. Patten, and Master Patten, Woodside Avenue; W. P. Nash, of Merion Avenue, and Edwin H. Coggeshall, a graduate of our local high school, now a resident of Germantown.

Two years ago the Main Line Orchestra was but a dream in the minds of a few men who saw the benefit of music as a sectional asset. They visualized the advertising and cultural advantages that would follow the organization of an orchestra that could do really good work and could give to the residents of the Main Line district concerts second only to the large, professional orchestras. They formed an

NEW YORK ARTISTS IN NARBERTH RECITAL

A recital of unusual interest was given in Narberth on Saturday, May 17, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

Ann Luckey, soprano, Ruth McLinn, pianist, of New York City, Margaret Kennedy, cellist, of Harrisburg, and Mary M. Curran, reader, of Wheeling, West Virginia, were the artists.

Miss McLinn delighted her audience with her splendid rendition of Troika of Tchaikowsky, Warum of Schumann, the G flat major Etude of Chopin, and the Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 of Liszt. Her sense of tonality and color are most unusual, and her excellent technique has been compared by one critic to the great Mme. Landowska.

One seldom encounters such voice, presence and artistry so combined as in Miss Luckey, who is fast winning a substantial place in the American concert field. Her aria from the Marriage of Figaro, of Mozart, was exquisitely rendered and the same lyric quality was applied to her old English songs, while the Songs of Leroux, Winter Watta, Arthur Toot and Martin Shaw gave her a chance to display her versatility.

Miss Kennedy is a cellist of splendid ability. Her tone, bowing and phrasing, are admirable. She added much to the program both in her solos and obligatos.

Miss Curran, of the National School of Elocution and Oratory, of Philadelphia, afforded considerable enjoyment by the clever rendering of her selection, "To the Ladies." She showed marked ability in impersonating the different characters of the play. Her own keen appreciation of the humor of the play found ready response in her audience.

The program was artistic in every sense, and the artists held their audience spell-bound through the entire program.

Juniors Entertain Many Guests

Reciprocity Meeting a Successful Affair

The Junior Section was host to a local representation from various Narberth organizations on the occasion of the Reciprocity Meeting, held in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A. Building, Thursday evening, May 22nd.

The towns of Ambler, Ardmore, Germantown, Norwood, Prospect Park and Rutledge contributed the Presidents and one member each of their Junior Clubs. The Senior Club of Narberth was also well represented in the representation consisting of Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Mrs. A. B. Ross, Mrs. Wm. Livingston and Mrs. J. E. Donnelly.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 8:15 by the President, Miss Florence C. Haaf, who made a short address of welcome. Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, the newly elected President of the Senior Club, made a short speech on behalf of that organization, and the meeting was then turned over to Miss Peg Eckbert, chairman of the Program Committee.

Miss Augusta Withrow, whose sweet voice is well known to Narberth residents, gave a splendid rendition of "Winds of the South," followed by the ever popular favorite, "The Dream." Mrs. Wayne Harris was at the piano.

Three prospective Juniors, the little Misses Robinson, McGee and Michaelson, gave a dainty and rhythmic dance, and this was followed by a solo piano solo by Miss Florentina Mueller. "So This is Love," from the popular musical comedy in which Irene Bordoni starred this winter.

The Misses McGee and Michaelson delighted the audience with a jazz dance number and Miss Iris Fredericks sang beautifully. Miss Madeline McCoy was at the piano.

A movie drama, written and acted by "The Man," "Marian Haws," "The Husband," "Ruth Haws," and "The Woman," "Kay Eckbert," was enthusiastically applauded by the audience.

Miss Marie Miesen submitted a solo dance number which was greatly appreciated, and the program closed with an advertising game in which the audience participated.

Refreshments, prepared and served under the watchful eye of Mrs. William Durbin, were next in order and were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

During the interim, Miss Haaf called on the Presidents of the visiting organizations for a report as to their own activities, and many valuable suggestions were gained from the accounts of their experiences in club work. They also expressed their delight at the opportunity of meeting the Narberth girls and their wonder at the rapid growth and exceptional talents presented by our young club.

All in all, a fine feeling of sociability and friendliness permeated the whole evening, and the Juniors have the satisfaction of knowing that it was worth while.

It would not be fair, when making mention of the success, to omit the names of those whose earnest efforts made this success possible. Too much credit cannot be given to the chairman of the Program Committee, Miss Peg Eckbert, for the well balanced program which she had arranged, nor to those mentioned above, whose talents contributed so largely to the enjoyment of the audience. There were also several unsung heroes, whose acting in the various advertising stunts was highly appreciated by the audience; also those who humbly served as stage managers, costumers and in general handy men, without which no undertaking can be a success.

Mrs. William Durbin and her large corps of capable assistants handled the question of refreshments for the crowd with ease and dispatch.

The Club wishes to publicly thank all these people who made a success of the first undertaking of this sort, and trusts that this will be but the beginning of meetings of this nature.

LADIES' NIGHT

On Wednesday evening, June 12th, 8 o'clock, there will be a Complimentary Dance and Entertainment given in St. Margaret's Parish Hall by the Holy Name Society. An excellent musical programme has been arranged and a hearty welcome is extended to the ladies and all members of the Holy Name Society.

League Season Off With Rush

Wayne Bows to Walzerites In Opening Game

There were no beating of drums, tinkling of cymbals, nor yet waiving of the succulent saxophone in Wayne on Saturday last when returns from Narberth were received, for Nick Dorsaneo's Wayne Men's Club entrants in the Main Line League golf tournament had taken a shut out beating at the hands of Fred Walzer's Boroughites, last year's League champions.

Bobby Gibson, who recently returned to the local fold, was the primary cause for Wayne's downfall. We'll tell a startling wild tale that Bobby was good. He kept Wayne's six hits as widely apart as were General Smed, Butler and Magistrate Carney, until the recent intense struggle was signed. The Jack game of the Main Line was only in danger once in the second round, when he bashed O'Meara in the spatter, passed O'Meara and allowed Barney Murphy to drop a Texas League over second. With the paths clogged and none out things looked dark for Bobby. But he hunched up his pants, pulled his cap over his left eye, fanned, grand and Bill Lathrop and caused Dave Lightfoot to pop to Graham.

Manager Fred Walzer's team played perfect ball, the star performer being Harvey Humphries at the hot corner. He played like a big leaguer, took five hard chances without a mishap, and felled three wallows. The reliable George Fleck was also guilty of three safeties.

Mike Burns was back of the bat again, which statement to Narberth fans means much. Two of the six runs are chalked against his name.

This afternoon we will have the new team of the League, Oakmont, here and it promises to be a good game. Wednesday, May 29th, Brookline, of the Del. Co. League, will be the attraction. Business Manager Hallar has been able to secure the Ashland A. A. Club of Philadelphia for Friday morning, May 30th. This is one of the very best teams in Philadelphia.

Don't miss any of these games as the players need the support of the fans.

TO INVITE LEGION

The congregation of the Methodist Church is looking forward to having the Harold Speakman Post of the American Legion worship with them this Sunday morning, May 25. Mr. Dawson will talk along a more or less patriotic line, and the Chorus Choir and Quartet will sing appropriate anthems.

At the evening service, 7:45 o'clock, the Choir will give a special musical program, which will probably be the last evening of song for the season. A fifteen minute organ recital will begin at 7:45 promptly. The chorus will render "Lux Begonia" (Lead, Kindly Light), by Cyril Jenkins. This is a very unusual and melodious fifteen-minute anthem, through which the baritone carries a pleasing obligato.

A very attractive duet arrangement by William H. Pontius of "Jesus, Saviour Pilot Me," for soprano and tenor will be another feature. And a male quartet will complete the program with a gospel selection.

Mr. Dawson will give a very interesting short talk on music, which will round out this musical evening, and satisfy the most critical. Every one will be given a hearty welcome.

THURSDAY INSTEAD OF FRIDAY

The Library will be open on Thursday, May 29, from 2 to 5 in the afternoon, and from 7 to 8:30 in the evening. This will enable the Library to observe Memorial Day without withdrawing its week-end service of the distribution of books.

The present owners of the Y. M. C. A. building have kindly granted permission to make this change.

The State Library at Harrisburg which is very helpful in its attitude toward the local Library has sent at the request of the Librarian two books on stone and cement construction which were asked for at the Library two weeks ago. The young man who requested them may have them by calling at the delivery desk.

The two books lent by the State Library for a period of three months are:

Cambell: How to use cement for concrete construction.
Whipple: Concrete stone manufacture.

Parade and Exercises on Playground Next Friday

The annual Memorial Day celebration, so successful last year, promises to be even larger this year.

The parade will be held next Friday, May 30th, at 9:30 A. M., starting at the Fire House and proceeding to Haverford Avenue, Essex Avenue, Price Avenue to Narberth Avenue, then south on Narberth Avenue over the bridge to Woodside Avenue, down Woodside Avenue to Wynnewood Avenue, north on Wynnewood Avenue, through the tunnel to Widener Avenue to the Community Playground.

Through the generosity of one of Narberth's citizens a flag pole has been donated to be erected on the Playground.

The flag will be raised during the Memorial Day Observance exercises, held under the auspices of the local American Legion Post and Auxiliary, cooperating with the Narberth Baseball Club.

An interesting program has been arranged. The following organizations have been invited to participate in the parade: Members of the G. A. The money cost of our part in the World War was over twenty-eight billion dollars. Material wealth is a relative thing, however, and the wealth of a nation is judged by its relation to that of the other world powers.

In material wealth, we are now undisciplined leaders of the world—a paradoxical result of the great war. America did not go to arms for the purpose of increasing her material wealth—but for the preservation of a great ideal—the ideal of democracy, the ideal of a social order whereby all men receive equal treatment before the law.

Just as America believes in treating each individual with equality regardless of his individual material possessions so it treats with nations and nationalities—in fact the heart of America has always leaned more toward the weaker and down-trodden nations than the strong and powerful. This is but consistent with the fundamental proposition to which our government was dedicated—a proposition first enunciated by the Son of Man from the Mount of Olives nearly 2000 years ago.

We now approach a day set aside for meditation and reflection—a time to consider the cost—not by material standards, of the wonderful heritage that is ours. It is a time to think of the sacrifices of our forefathers who from their vision, they selected Adolph brought our country into being. A time, Vogel, a member of the Philadelphia to think of that great "Grand Army of the Republic" that so valorously fought for the preservation of our union, a time to remember the boys of 1898 who answered the call to humanity to relieve a poor and distracted neighbor from the clutches of brutal subjection, and a time to commemorate the lives of those who so recently went forth and made the great supreme sacrifice that democracy, the hopes and aspirations of the common peoples of all the earth, might not be estranged by the iron fist of autocratic power.

The American Legion Auxiliary at this time each year sell the American Legion Memorial flower—the Poppy—the wearing of which is but a token of an appreciation of what those departed comrades gave their lives for, and the proceeds of this sale go to the care of the orphans of some thousand of those who left children behind when they entered the service.

Sale Saturday, May 24th.

Chairman Poppy Sale.

WOMEN VOTERS PLAN BAZAAR

"Wyndham Fair," the bazaar which is to be given by the Township League of Women Voters in October at Miss Ely's residence in Bryn Mawr, was discussed at length at the board meeting held last Thursday at headquarters in the Merion Title Building at Ardmore.

The general plans for this event are being made now so that the work of preparation may continue during the summer.

Mrs. J. Aubrey Sutton, of Ardmore, is Chairman of the Fair; Mrs. J. Reynolds Pierpont, of Merion, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. J. A. Lefore, of Narberth, Treasurer; Mrs. John Y. Huber, of Wynnewood, Promoter; Mrs. W. Newbold Watson, of Merion, Grounds Chairman; Mrs. Clarence Gardner, of Wynwyd, Publicity.

Miss Wynne Evans, of Merion, is chairman of the Township League.

"BLUE STOCKINGS" PICNIC

Members of the Junior Church, a department for the Younger Folks of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, opened the picnic season last Saturday afternoon. Nearly twenty boys, well chaparroned, left the Church grounds about 3 P. M., for a spot about midway between Bala Cynwyd, Manayunk and Narberth, hiked it, of course, in real Western style. After a big league game of ball, everyone rushed to the bonfire, started by one of said chaparrones, fearing there would not be enough "doggies" to go round. No boy was allowed more than seven sandwiches, for some room must be left for at least a half dozen crullers. The boys returned in the cool of the evening, reporting one casualty, and a rattling good afternoon.

At the same time that the boys went eastward, about the same number of girls, guarded over by three of the younger set, journeyed towards the west. They had their good time, as girls only can, in the Shortridge Estate, closing the day with a real picnic lunch. So that's that—but they all want to know when the next one is to be held.

PRESBYTERIANS DINE

Yep! And if you want anything done right, let Narberth do it. Monday evening about 125 members and guests of the Presbyterian Sunday School Superintendents' Association of Philadelphia and vicinity, assembled for their regular monthly meeting and were feasted at the old Y. M. C. A. by the Narberth Presbyterian Bible School, and it seemed to be the unanimous opinion that the dinner was of "Bellevue" quality at "Automatic" price. Unstudied praise is merited by the women who were the enterers for the occasion. Mrs. L. M. Keim was Chief Chef, and Mrs. G. W. Orth was head waiter, assisted by a bevy of Narberth "beauties." But 'twould not be "Fair" nor "Wright" if mention were not made of the first and second cooks and others in the kitchen. They, too, were worthy of a second look; and if they all cook and serve half as well in their own homes, some Narberth men are surely lucky creatures. Lilacs must have been at a premium the next day, for the banquet hall was a veritable bower of them. To quote our good President of Council, "a good time was had by all." After the feast, the Association adjourned to the Church auditorium, where Dr. Park Hays Miller delivered the address of the evening.

Orchestra Concert

association composed of prominent men and women who were equally enthusiastic over the idea. And their idea grew. It was contagious. With Charles S. Powell, of Ardmore, acting as president, a strong board of directors and equally strong member-ship, the Association proceeded upon that is ours. It is a time to think of the sacrifices of our forefathers who from their vision, they selected Adolph brought our country into being. A time, Vogel, a member of the Philadelphia to think of that great "Grand Army of the Republic" that so valorously fought for the preservation of our union, a time to remember the boys of 1898 who answered the call to humanity to relieve a poor and distracted neighbor from the clutches of brutal subjection, and a time to commemorate the lives of those who so recently went forth and made the great supreme sacrifice that democracy, the hopes and aspirations of the common peoples of all the earth, might not be estranged by the iron fist of autocratic power.

Then there must be the orchestra itself—the individual members upon whom must fall the burden of the work. A small handful came when the first invitations were extended. Some of that little group are still with the orchestra. Others have fallen by the way-side. Then came the first concert. Unquestionably good it was, considering the conditions under which it was given, but unmistakably amateurish, compared with later concerts which the orchestra has given this season. But it was a beginning and it inspired all those whose faith made the beginning possible with renewed confidence.

More players were attracted as subsequent concerts proved better and better. They came and found training in orchestral routine such as they could get nowhere else. Week after week they came and struggled with music that at first was far beyond their experience for the most part. But gradually work that was impossible became possible—then comparatively easy—and still later a movement from a symphony was given in public, and creditably given!

Gradually therefore, with the united and tireless effort of every unit involved, the Association, its officers, Mr. Vogel and members of the orchestra, the Main Line Orchestra has become an assured success. It is known far beyond the limits of the Main Line section. It will soon be known over wider territory. It is now an integral part of the Main Line.

As the orchestra develops into, even greater fields, Narberth will look back with satisfaction upon the part which it played. Probably no other single town along the Main Line or elsewhere supplied as much talent—eighty out of a total of fifty.

SCHOOL NOTES
The Editors for the week are John Haylick and Charles Liggett.

The commencement exercises of the Class of 1924, Narberth Junior High School, will be held in the auditorium on the evening of Thursday, June 19. The exercises will include the reading of prize essays, music, awarding of prizes and diplomas, and probably an address.

The pupils of the graduating class are now busily employed in the writing of essays for the prizes offered by the Society of Colonial Dames and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

One day last week Nick Civitello of the 4B Grade was invited to tell the pupils in the First Grades how to play marbles. He explained it so that even the girls became interested and wanted to learn how to play.

Last Thursday the school team played a special baseball team from the Montgomery Day School. Narberth lost with a score of 5 to 3.

Miss Speakman, the music teacher, has started a new glee club to furnish music at the commencement exercises. It consists of pupils selected from the different grades in the Junior High School.

The Fifth Grades, to the number of fifty and over, accompanied by their teachers, Miss Hoover and Miss McKay, visited the Commercial Museum on Tuesday and, after a survey of the many displays enjoyed illustrated lecture on Central Africa given by Dr. Fisher of the Museum staff.

The following pupils have received honors for the period ending May 20:

Grade IX
1st honors—Ruth Caldwell, John Haylick and Edwin Speakman.
2nd Honors—Katherine Adams, Lois Caldwell, Robert Harris, Laura Henderson, Wallace Litchfield, Anna McTracken and Elizabeth Walls.

Second Honors—Robert Barclay, John Ferguson, Elma Reese, Jessie Richardson.
Grade VII

The Community Library, which opened on January 31, 1921, with 18 books, has in three years and four months become an active organization with 3,182 books. There are 23 volunteer workers giving their time regularly each week to the various branches of the Library work, and also 15 women and young girls who are subject to call as substitutes. Staff meetings are held once a month for the discussion of Library problems and methods.

The Library has all the usual departments: cataloging, shelving, circulation, reference and children's departments, with an assistant in charge of each. Other activities of the Library include a monthly bulletin of book additions, selected lists on special subjects, and a half column of publicity regularly in the weekly paper.

All the anniversary days and special weeks are observed with appropriate exhibits, and for many of them, such as Children's Book Week, Garden Week, Music Week, etc., the Library makes a special endeavor to procure and display new and standard books catering to the public interest and desire for further information which are aroused by the special occasion.

Copies of this report have been filed with the Library records, with the County Chairman of Libraries, and with the State Library at Harrisburg.

(Signed) ELIZABETH K. WOOD,
Librarian.

MORE GOOD EATS

The archives of Ladies' Auxiliary of the Narberth Tennis Club discloses the fact that last season they served fourteen hundred and seventy three (1473) of these grand dinners to members and their guests each Saturday night.

You simply can't stop 'em, they are at it again, and judging from the number of covers laid last Saturday, the first of the season, it looks as if they will break the 2000 mark this year. A real honest to goodness chef has been employed for this season, but that handsome bevy of girls will look after your wants and serve you to the Queen's taste. Next Saturday, May 17th, the dinner will be in charge of Mrs. J. C. McKee, and that in itself assures good food, good service, and an abundance. Her able assistants will be the following bodied and un bodied: Mrs. R. C. Williams, Mrs. C. R. Metzger and Mrs. J. W. Darville.

These dinners have proven most attractive to club members and their friends, and reservations for Saturday's dinner have now been made to the extent of sixty two.

In order that the Committee may plan accordingly, it is imperative that reservations be made prior to 10 A. M. on the date of the dinner, and these may be made by calling Narberth 693.

These are the kind of dinners mother tried to make and couldn't.

Last, but not least, the price is six bits per. It's worth two iron men of anybody's money.

OUTDOOR CARD PARTY

Giving the public what it wants is a policy long followed by the enterprising Juniors. Thus their first party, staged on Smalley's lawn last summer, having been enthusiastically received, is to be followed by the second outdoor affair given by this club.

Saturday afternoon, June 7th, will find the side lawn in the estate of Augustus H. Mueller, corner Forest and Windsor Avenues, closely dotted with chattering, laughing or silently intent ladies deeply engrossed in the all important subject of winning one of the handsome prizes.

There will be a prize for each table—something beautiful or unique and far more in value than the admission fee of 75 cents.

However, that is not all. Refresh-

For those ladies who enjoy bridge, 300, pinochle or Mah Jong in congenial company and beautiful surroundings, the Juniors extend a cordial invitation to join with them in an afternoon of pleasure.

Tickets, which are 75 cents, may be purchased from an Junior. As a suggestion telephone Louise Farina to reserve a table for yourself and guests, make up your own table and play your own game.

Patton's Auto Gloss Finish

while primarily designed as a finish for automobiles, has been found to be excellent for painting furniture. It dries hard with a good lustre; it is easily applied; it resists the weather; it is very opaque and does not require an undercoater. In other words, it is good stuff.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Looking Ahead

LAST Spring a total of 350,000 people were disappointed in not being able to obtain deliveries of Ford Cars and Trucks, as orders were placed faster than cars could be produced.

The demand for Ford Cars and Trucks this Spring will, according to all indications, be far greater than last Spring.

Winter buying has been increasing at a greater rate than ever before.

Actual retail deliveries the past 60 days totaled 308,170 Ford Cars and Trucks, an increase of 1,961 a day over a year ago.

Over 200,000 people have already ordered Ford products on our purchase plan, the majority of whom will take delivery in the Spring.

The above facts are given with the suggestion that you list your order promptly with a Ford dealer if you contemplate the purchase of a Ford Car or Truck for use this Spring or Summer and wish to avoid delay in delivery.
